Mr. Thomas J. Kelley
Assistant Director, Protective Intelligence
United States Secret Service
Washington, D. C.

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Mr. Kelley:

I have today received two of the items you sent to the Archives for me. There would appear to be serious discrepancies of a nature that can be scandalous beyond belief.

If you do not wish to be informed of this, I will make no use thereof in any form. If you would like to be informed, I will do so in detail; but in return I will ask you to maintain this in confidence.

Should you desire the presence of the other gentlemen who were at our meeting, that, of course, is fine subject to the same single reservation specified above.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
